

CELEBRATING THE WOMEN OF THE JUNIOR LEAGUE OF LANCASTER

Ann Fulton

Junior League Member Since 1995, Sustainer Since 2015

How do you spend your days? I am a recipe developer and author of a food blog called The Fountain Avenue Kitchen, which is geared towards easy, delicious recipes that we can pull off amidst our busy lives. So, I spend a lot of time cooking, writing, and taking pictures.

Of what are you most proud? My two sons, who are now 22 and 19.

Who inspires you? My Dad. He always put his family first, followed by the community around him. He has a great sense of humor, is the most principled person I know, and makes frequent deliveries of goodies ranging from seasonal strawberries to pumpkin pie.

If you could give your younger self, or a young woman today, any advice, what would it be? Never count yourself out, and you can truly make something out of nothing.
